

ENTERTAINMENT / LONG ISLAND / MUSEUMS

Must-see museum exhibits on Long Island

By Steve Parks

WILD KINGDOM: HUNT SLONEM AND

A HUNDRED YEARS OF ANIMAL ART

Nov. 17-March 3, Nassau County Museum of Art,

1 Museum Dr., Roslyn Harbor

Considered one of the foremost living American artists painting, sculpting and making prints of tropical birds and other creatures in exotic settings, Slonem headlines an exhibition curated by Franklin Hill Perrell. It ranges from French artist Jean de Brunhoff's Babar the elephant to bullfights depicted by Pablo Picasso.

INFO 516-484-9337, nassaumuseum.org

